

Predicts '62 Will Be Good for Industry

A near capacity crowd turned out last night at Hotel Barlow for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet and the principal discussion during the program was industry in Arkansas.

Kenneth Pat Wilson, Jacksonville banker and president of the State C of C, was principal speaker. He issued a challenge to the C of C and Hope to go out and bring in industry this year. He touched briefly on the newly organized State group set up by the AIDC which he termed "Good for Arkansas as a whole." But it is up to the individual communities to make their areas attractive enough that industry will want to come in. He praised the progress Hope has made.

William P. Rock, director of the AIDC, presented Hope with the six-point AIDC preparedness award. Mr. Rock told the group that 1961 was a "depression year" for industry, but predicted that 1962 will see a break through on new industry locations in Arkansas. His talk was accompanied by slides on industry.

I. J. Steed of the State C of C presented the Hope Chamber with the blueprint for progress road signs award, and achievement that took three years for this city to acquire.

George Frazier introduced the principal speaker and short talks were made by Cliff Bridges, retiring C of C president and by William R. Caldwell, the new president. Haskett Jones served as master of ceremonies. Mr. Jones presented Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Prescott of the Farm Family of the Year plaque which is given annually by the Hope Star.

Special guests included Ray Taylor, chief of community services for the AIDC; Cole Castellow, industrial development counselor of the Arkansas Power and Light Co.; C. L. Leighton, district manager of the Southwestern Electric Power Co.; Dr. Geo. Baletine, pastor of First Baptist Church, gave the invocation. The dining hall at Hotel Barlow was decorated for the occasion by the Hope Garden Club.

Convicted Slayed to Get New Trial

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A federal court ruling about racial discrimination in the selection of Pulaski Circuit Court juries probably will result in a new trial for convicted murderer Clarence Stewart Jr., 23-year-old Negro.

U.S. Dist. Judge Gordon E. Young said at a conference with attorneys for Stewart and the state Monday that he was bound by the principles set forth by the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals in the Luther Bailey rape case.

The appeals court overturned Bailey's conviction and death sentence on the ground that Negroes were systematically excluded from circuit court juries between 1953 and 1960. Bailey, a Negro, was retried last month and again sentenced to death.

Stewart, under death sentence for the slaying of a shopkeeper in a North Little Rock robbery, was given a stay of execution by Young last week after attorneys filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus on the basis of the findings in the Bailey case.

Young set a hearing at 10 a. m. Monday on Stewart's petition.

Indonesia Told U. S. Is Still Trying

By PETER ARNETT

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Robert F. Kennedy told Indonesian President Sukarno today the U.S. government has "done all it can behind the scenes" to promote a peaceful solution to the Dutch-Indonesian dispute over West New Guinea.

A U.S. Embassy source said Kennedy emphasized to Sukarno in a two-hour conference over lunch at the Merdeka Palace that America has "a big interest in this dispute and wants a peaceful solution."

Kennedy's remarks to Sukarno were the basis of a verbal message he carried to neutralist Indonesia from his elder brother President Kennedy, the embassy source said.

The U.S. attorney general made similar remarks in conferences today with other top Indonesian political figures who regard him as a direct pipeline to President Kennedy. Crammed into Kennedy's tight schedule were talks with Sukarno; Foreign Minister Subandrio; National Security Minister Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution; Atty. Gen. Gunawan, and a Sukarno advisor, Ruslan Abdul Ghan, deputy chairman of the Supreme Advisory Council.

The embassy source said Kennedy did not offer any solution to Indonesia's many problems and that his talks were of an informal nature. However, he did stress America's deep interest in Indonesia.

President Kennedy "appreciates attempts by Indonesia's leaders to develop your country economically and achieve prosperity for all the people," the attorney general said.

He added the President "also realizes the extent to which the New Guinea issue is a problem in your country's economic development."

Sukarno is placing his nation's full resources behind his campaign to get West New Guinea from the Netherlands this year, by force if necessary.

Kennedy made clear America's great interest in the dispute and emphasized that the United States is the friend of both countries, the embassy source said.

Kennedy spoke for 45 minutes with eight top representatives of nationalist and Moslem labor unions and appealed to them to help find a peaceful solution to the New Guinea crisis.

Leaders of the Communist-dominated Sals labor federation, Indonesia's largest, had been invited to the session but did not show up.

Kennedy seemed undisturbed by the restrained public welcome he has received in Jakarta so far.

Only a few hundred persons, mostly officials and civil servants turned up at the airport to meet him on his arrival for a six-day visit. Small groups of people gathered along his route then and today and showed quiet curiosity.

There were no cheers or waving of banners.

Contracts for Printing Ruling Soon

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The involved and far-reaching Parkin Printing Co. suit is in the hands of the Arkansas Supreme Court. A decision may be made later this month.

Attorneys argued the case before the court Monday after Justice Neill Bohlinger decided to participate in the proceedings. Then the court took the case under submission.

Bohlinger is a former legal representative of the state Highway Commission, headed by Harry W. Parkin, president of Parkin Printing Co., the defendant.

Arkansas Printing and Lithographing, which challenged 15 state printing contracts held by Parkin, said he understood Bohlinger would disqualify himself from the case.

Bohlinger told Chief Justice Carlton Harris he had decided to participate.

Arkansas Printing said Parkin could not hold the contracts because its president was a member and chairman of the Highway Commission. Pulaski Chancery Court upheld Arkansas Printing and Parkin appealed to the Supreme Court.

The case will have far-reaching effects because a number of state contracts are held by firms with which state commissioners are connected.

Mitchell said the court should approve the chancery court decision and hold that there is a conflict of interest and what he called "the element of self dealing" in cases such as the one involved.

Robert V. Light, attorney for Parkin, argued that there were safeguards to protect the public and that Parkin's relation to the contractors was too remote to endanger the public interest.

He said Parkin had no practical contact with the letting of bids.

$100,000 Fire at North Little Rock

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Fire destroyed a building formerly used in the manufacture of high explosives here Monday, and damage was estimated at $100,000.

The building was used in World War II to manufacture picric acid for use in explosives. It was on the site of the old Maumelle Ordnance Works, which was bought from the government by Perry Equipment Co. and later sold to North Little Rock as an industrial development site.

Perry reserved a portion of the plant, including the building destroyed, for use as a distribution center for processed salvage. Bob Betz, spokesman for the company, estimated the damage.

China Against a Summit Meet

HONG KONG (AP)—Hong Kong's official Chinese Communist newspaper today bluntly said Soviet Premier Khrushchev's proposal for an 18-nation disarmament summit meeting will not achieve anything.

"The only way to ensure world peace is to uproot imperialism," said the New Evening Post. "Troops and arms are only tools of war and imperialism is the cause of it."

Suit Filed Against Official

KENNETT, Mo. (AP)—A civil action to recover $20,482 plus penalties from Wayne E. Chailland, former Dunklin County treasurer and ex officio collector, was filed today in Dunklin County Circuit Court. The suit involves fees Chailland received from money handled through his office.

The former Democratic official, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for state representative, claimed politics motivated filing of the suit at this time.

The petition was filed by Prosecuting Attorney Clarence Overby Jr. and Missouri Atty. Gen. Thomas F. Engleton.

Chailland said the fees which he kept were approved by a state Supreme Court ruling in 1958 and that the decision was reversed by the same court a year later. He said that when he took office in 1954 he was operating under the best legal advice available, including that of the attorney general, the courts and local lawyers.

Under the fee system Chailland followed during his two terms, he retained a percentage of moneys that passed through his office, including school disbursements, in addition to his county salary.

Broad Spirit of Proposal Welcomed

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Macmillan today welcomed "the broad spirit" of the letter of Soviet Premier Khrushchev proposing a summit conference on disarmament.

Macmillan told the House of Commons the problem now was to find a way of linking proposals made by the United States and Britain "with the more general ideas which the chairman of the Soviet Union has in mind."

Khrushchev proposed that the 18-nation disarmament conference opening in Geneva March 14 be conducted at summit level in its opening stages.

His proposal came after Macmillan and President Kennedy had suggested an American-British-Russian foreign ministers conference, as a curtain raiser for the disarmament talks.

Diplomatic sources predicted that President Kennedy, Macmillan and Khrushchev will meet later this year.

Arkansas Missing in Arizona

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The search for missing pilot William Eads of Springfield, La., is scheduled to resume today over Arizona and California north from Blythe toward Bakersfield.

Eads, manager of the Magnolia, Ark., airport, left Magnolia Saturday morning on a flight to Wasco, Calif. He was expected to return early Sunday, but was last heard from when he took off at Phoenix after refueling his single-engine Beechcraft Bonanza.

Rain and fog hampered the first day's search for the 28-year-old Eads, who filed no flight plan out of Phoenix.

Space Venture Now Depends on Weather

By FRED HOFFMAN

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—As the preliminary countdown began today for attempt to rocket John H. Glenn Jr. into earth orbit Wednesday, an Air Force weather reconnaissance plane probed storm-tossed Atlantic recovery areas where conditions were reported improving.

"I don't think the case is hopeless by any means," a weather specialist said. "But it's not as encouraging as we'd like."

He said a thorough weather study may bring a decision late today on whether to put the flight off a day or two.

In hopes the weather would clear, Project Mercury officials today began the preliminary countdown aimed at a 7:30 a. m. launching. The 14-hour count is split over two days, not necessarily consecutive, with the last half picking up shortly after midnight on launch day.

As the count started, heavy fog blanketed the Cape Canaveral site but was expected to burn off by midmorning. A weather report said similar conditions could exist Wednesday, which would delay the firing.

The reconnaissance plane took off from Bermuda to take a close look at seas and skies in a line extending through the three main recovery areas where Glenn's capsule would impact after one, two or three orbits.

The main concern was the zone 500 miles east of Bermuda where Glenn would land if his flight were terminated after a single pass. Waves were reported running five to eight feet high there today, down from 10 feet Monday when 40-mile winds whipped the area.

The launching attempt will not be made if waves are higher than five feet or winds more than 20 miles an hour in any of the recovery areas.

Conditions in the other two areas—500 miles south of Bermuda and 800 miles southeast of Cape Canaveral—were reported satisfactory.

The weather expert said a series of disturbances was running through the Atlantic east of Bermuda, with a new frontal wave developing every few hours. The last two waves were less severe than those of Monday, he reported.

He said the weather trough causing the disturbance may break down in a few days, giving hope that the launching can be attempted later this week if not accomplished Wednesday.

At an 8:30 a. m. weather briefing the National Aeronautics and Space Administration released this report:

"The western Atlantic is still subject to stormy conditions in the area around Bermuda and about 800 miles to the east. Small-scale storm centers are moving northward across the path of first orbit at frequent intervals."

"Marginal wind and sea conditions, together with cloudiness and showers, are indicated in that area, but there is no positive indication of another storm forming before planned launch time. There has been little change in the eastern half of the Atlantic where trade winds are still well above."

Gas Merger in Hands of Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Wiley McGee's suit against the merger of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. and Mid South Gas Co. is now in the hands of the Arkansas Supreme Court.

McGee, a Mid South stockholder, claims he is being deprived of property by a two-for-one stock exchange in the merger.

McGee asked the court Monday that he be allowed to argue his case before it. That was the motion taken under advisement. Attorneys for the utilities and for the state Public Service Commission contended that McGee's attorneys didn't file their appeal with the court in time.

McGee said he filed under a general 90-day law instead of a 60 day limit Smith said was the applicable time limit.

His attorneys said they had not been given a chance to present their case fully before the PSC or Pulaski Circuit Court, which upheld the PSC ruling in favor of the merger.

Pine Bluff Joins Fight on Gas Rate

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Pine Bluff City Atty. George W. Holmes has asked the state Public Service Commission to require the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. to pay a six per cent interest penalty to the city and rate payers.

Holmes contends elevator clause rate increases collected by Arkla since 1958 are illegal.

The PSC has not acted on a similar request from the city of El Dorado.

An increase in basic monthly rates granted the utility last year by the PSC drew protests from several cities, including Pine Bluff and El Dorado. An appeal has been filed with the state Supreme Court.

Holmes petition which would require Arkla to prove justification of rate increases on the escalator clause on successive years. He said the increases were made without public notice.

Truckers, Weights Men to Cooperate

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A meeting between State Police officials and members of the Arkansas Independent Truckers Association Monday brought forth specific complaints about the Division of sides part with vows of future cooperation.

The meeting resulted from charges leveled last week by the truckers' group that division employees had forced some truck drivers to give them part of their cargoes in order to get their truck weights approved.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus labeled the charges rumors and said an investigation by his office had failed to turn up any evidence of misconduct among division employees. At that time he asked the truckers to come forward with specific complaints about specific persons.

Monday's meeting was called by State Police Director Herman Lindsey. He asked for names, dates and places involved in the alleged abuses and these were transcribed during the meeting by a stenographer.

Robert O. Cook, a Little Rock truck dealer and chairman of the association's Law Enforcement Committee, assured Lindsey that his group was not with hunting.

"All we want is the weight law enforced," Cook said.

Cook then cited instances of alleged abuses. He charged that within 24 to 48 hours after the Association was formed about three months ago, new members received tickets and were told it was because of the association.

Other charges leveled by Cook were:

That some truckers were forewarned about the location of weight scales;

That some trucks were checked, while others, some more heavily loaded, escaped the scales;

That division employees had allowed trucks on a federal construction project to carry loads of up to 64,000 pounds when state law prohibited loads above 50,000 pounds;

That tickets for overloads were being fixed;

That collections were taken up by truckers to give to weight enforcement officers;

And that weight enforcement officers had accepted other gifts, including one who had gotten a television set.

Worst Floods in Years Hit Western States

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southeast Idaho fought its worst floods in 25 years today, as collapse of an irrigation dam and heavy rains inundated new communities and sent hundreds of residents scurrying for high ground.

Swollen streams which already had surged over their banks into more than a dozen villages and towns threatened still others. Low parts of downtown Pocatello were flooded.

An earth-fill dam broke Monday. Impounded water swept down the Teton River and spread over half the town of Sugar City, which has 700 inhabitants.

National Guard troops and volunteers battled to control the rising water, in the face of new dangers caused by rapid melting of mountain snows during a warm spell coupled with the downpours. Seven Idaho counties have been declared disaster areas. More than 1,000 families have fled their homes.

In Southern California, skies cleared after six days of rain, and high waters began to recede. In their wake were tons of mud and debris and scores of wrecked or damaged homes. Some residents in isolated areas were still cut off.

Twenty-six deaths were attributed to the rain, which totaled more than eight inches in downtown Los Angeles. Among them were three San Diego boys trapped Monday in the cave-in of a rain-softened sandstone cliff.

Cars were muddled in along Hollywood Boulevard in the heart of the movie studio area after an early-morning cloudburst Monday sent mud roaring down a residential street.

Some homes were buried in mud to within a foot of the ceiling. Cars were tossed down Beachwood Drive along with planks, boulders, trees and other debris.

The Los Angeles cloudburst, apparently was the last gasp of the storm, which caused millions of dollars of damage. The Weather Bureau predicted partly cloudy skies, but warned of a possible new storm by midweek.

The northern Nevada town of Battle Mountain was declared a disaster area by Gov. Grant Sawyer after Reese River floodwaters attacked it.

National Guardsmen in Rangely, Colo., fired bazooka rockets to break up an ice jam in the White River. The western Colorado oil town was flooded Saturday when a sudden thaw sent huge ice chunks downstream.

Local GOP Committee Is Formed

Haskett Jones, Hempstead County Republican Chairman, announced the formation of a Republican Women's Committee. It will be officially chartered and activated on Feb. 27 when Marion Smith, state chairman for GOP women, will come to Hope to meet with the group.

Mrs. Lynn Harris will be the chairwoman with Mrs. Ed Ogram as vice chairman. Other charter members will include Mrs. James Branch, Mrs. John Randolph, Mrs. Haskett Jones, Mrs. William Houston, Mrs. Paul Klipsch, Mrs. Lloyd Guerin, Mrs. C. H. Partin and Mrs. W. T. Rowland.

Other women interested in establishing the two-party system in Hempstead County are urged to contact Mrs. Harris and arrange to be present at the meeting. One of the first functions of the group will be to hold a reception for Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller when she comes to Hope on March 20.

Their activities will include telephone and personal canvassing campaigning and serving as election judges and clerks. The Mobile, Ala. Republican Women were credited with electing the first GOP mayor in Mobile in 100 years.

Ruck Dashes
Cold Water on Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary
of State Dean Rusk has dashed cold water on Soviet Premier Khrushchev's proposal that the 18-nation Geneva disarmament talks start off next month with a summit conference.

But Rusk indicated that if progress is made it is possible the heads of government might then wrap up any loose ends.

This was the first official public
reaction to Khrushchev's suggestion for an 18-nation summit meeting on disarmament.

The Soviet leader made it in a letter replying to messages
from President Kennedy and
British Prime Minister Harold
Macmillan. They had proposed that the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union send their foreign ministers to the disarmament conference.

They further proposed to
Khrushchev, it was disclosed
Monday, that the three governments keep their representatives at the bargaining table "until concrete results have been obtained—however long this may take."

President Kennedy is expected to reply in a few days to the Soviet premier's counter-proposal.
Informants said the reply will be courteous, as was Khrushchev's letter, but firm.

It will restate the position that a heads of government meeting should convene only to approve work done on a lower level, or
to try to bridge differences which negotiators could not solve, the informants said.

Kennedy's reply, however, will not exclude the possibility of a summit at a later date should
the Geneva parley show adequate progress. But it will restate the reasons for Western dislike for unprepared summitry, the sources said.

Rusk explained the U.S. position late Monday in a radio interview.

Summit meetings, he said,
"ought to be handled with considerable care and advance pre-

et's fuel tanks extended the postponement for more than two weeks.

At a pre-launch review Monday, technicians reported that all elements apart from the still dubious weather were in what they called a "go" condition.

These elements included the Atlas rocket and the capsule—both of which have been plagued with malfunctions—the global tracking stations, the Navy recovery forces out in the Atlantic and Glenn himself.

Glenn, a lieutenant colonel in the Marine Corps, underwent the first half of the extensive physical check that precedes a space flight. He was scheduled to finish that examination today.

The astronaut and his standby pilot, Navy Lt. Cmdr. Scott Carpenter, spent the evening reviewing once again the flight plans they have studied so often before.

Predicts a Conference Late in Year

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP) — Diplomatic
sources predicted today President Kennedy, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Soviet Premier Khrushchev will meet in a summit conference later this year.

This possibility, the informants said, is a likely outcome of communications which the two Western leaders exchanged with Khrushchev.

A Foreign Office spokesman went out of his way at a news conference to explain that future planning for East-West contact is still in a fluid state.

He stressed that the Western powers are consulting among themselves on the approach to be made now to Khrushchev.

Khrushchev tossed Kennedy and Macmillan a hot potato Monday by proposing the 18-nation disarmament conference in Geneva should begin March 14 on a summit basis.

A Western answer may be delivered to Moscow this week.

The United States and Britain reject the idea of an 18-nation summit, which they believe can only degenerate into a propaganda circus. But they are expected to leave the way open for a three-power summit later in the year.

Ruck Dashes
Cold Water on Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary
of State Dean Rusk has dashed
cold water on Soviet Premier Khrushchev's proposal that the 18-nation Geneva disarmament
talks start off next month with
a summit conference.

But Rusk indicated that if progress is made it is possible the heads of government might then
wrap up any loose ends.

This was the first official public
reaction to Khrushchev's suggestion for an 18-nation summit
meeting on disarmament.

The Soviet leader made it in a letter replying to messages
from President Kennedy and
British Prime Minister Harold
Macmillan. They had proposed
that the United States, Britain
and the Soviet Union send their foreign ministers to the disarmament conference.

They further proposed to
Khrushchev, it was disclosed
Monday, that the three governments keep their representatives
at the bargaining table "until
concrete results have been obtained—however long this may take."

President Kennedy is expected to reply in a few days to the Soviet premier's counter-proposal.
Informants said the reply will
be courteous, as was Khrush-
chev's letter, but firm.

It will restate the position that
a heads of government meeting
should convene only to approve
work done on a lower level, or
to try to bridge differences which negotiators could not solve, the informants said.

Kennedy's reply, however, will not exclude the possibility of a summit at a later date should
the Geneva parley show adequate progress. But it will restate the reasons for Western dislike for unprepared summitry, the sources
said.

Rusk explained the U.S. position late Monday in a radio interview.

Summit meetings, he said,
"ought to be handled with considerable care and advance pre-

"In the Cape Canaveral area, cloudiness or fog is likely again Wednesday morning, but should not persist past midmorning."

Walter C. Williams, operations director for the man-in-space project, said he would base his launch decision on the latest available weather information as the countdown got under way.

The countdown — a detailed check of the complex rocket and space capsule and supporting systems—is a 14-hour process split over two days.

The weather—specifically, a heavy cloud cover over the Cape —forced postponement of the first effort to rocket the 40-year-old Glenn into earth orbit on Jan.
27. Trouble with the Atlas rock-et's fuel tanks extended the post-

Overstocked Materials to Be Sold

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's excess hoard of strategic materials will have to be sold slowly—perhaps over 10 years—to avoid a stunning shock to the economy, says senators who have scanned secret reports.

The question of disposal likely will be one of the major problems of a Senate subcommittee preparing to act on President Kennedy's order for an inquiry into stockpiling.

And the stockpile's two giants—aluminum and rubber—probably will get most of the attention.

Informed senators noted that a decision made in the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration—and concurred in currently by Kennedy—to cut the strategic requirement from a five-year supply to a three-year one contributes to the excesses.

The more than two million tons of aluminum and million tons of rubber presumably could be sold for a profit at present prices, providing a way would be worked out for gradual disposal.

If such heavy amounts of aluminum and rubber were thrown on the market in a relatively short time, it probably would drive down prices. This would hold true for other stockpile materials. A quick sale also might choke industries which supply the materials.

The amount the government spent for all raw materials—including some not regarded as strategic—was fixed by senators at more than $9 billion.

Roaring Gales Batter Coast of Europe

LONDON (AP)—Roaring gales battered northwest Europe today and spread a trail of wreckage across Britain with at least four dead.

The Meteorological Office said a 123-mile gust recorded at Lowther Hill, 2,377 feet above sea level at Lanarkshire in Scotland, was probably the fastest gust ever recorded in the British Isles. Huge waves swept the North Sea and Baltic but by midmorning no ships were reported in major trouble.

The winds boosted a Pan American jet into London from Los Angeles an hour and 26 minutes ahead of schedule.

Southwesterly gales with gusts up to hurricane strength battered Germany's North Sea and Baltic coasts, whipping up 10-foot waves in some ports. Virtually all German shipping was at a standstill. Harbors were jammed by small ships seeking shelter.

Gales also raged along the rugged southwest coast of Norway while snow and rain poured down over the southern parts of the country. Continuous gale warnings were issued to shipping in Skagerrak Channel between southern Norway and Denmark.

Gale winds and rain whipped most of Denmark. A tornado, a rare phenomenon in Europe, injured two people and caused extensive damage in the north Jutland town of Hosterbro Sunday. The Mediterranean was calm and sunny.

The Soviet port of Vladivostok had a 24-hour blizzard with twice the monthly snowfall, Moscow radio reported.

Allies Again Reject Bid by Russia

By CARL HARTMAN

BERLIN (AP)—For the third time in less than a week, the Western Allies today rejected a Soviet bid to take over part of the air corridors into Berlin. Flights were normal and no Soviet planes were reported sighted. The Soviets in the Berlin air safety center had asked for exclusive use of the Hamburg to Berlin and Hanover to Berlin corridors up to 7,500 feet altitude for two hours and 23 minutes. The U.S., British and French commands considered this another attempt to weaken their access rights to Berlin, 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain.

Pilots for commercial air lines flying into Berlin reported conditions turbulent and uncomfortable at that level, with driving rains and gusts of nearly 60 miles an hour.

The Western Allies rejected the Soviet demand for "block booking" of the corridors and said the four-power rule in force for the past 17 years would have to be followed—that individual flights would have to be followed—that individual flights would have to be reported to the Berlin air safety center and clear.

Should Daughter Support Mother Who Abandoned Her?

By HELEN WOREN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I was brought up by foster parents until my twenty-first year when both died. I loved them and they me. All I have and am. I owe to them.

During our happy years together, I was given every opportunity to see my own mother, something I never did, for buried in my heart were sharp memories of her indifference to me. I shall never forget, small though, I was, the day she abandoned me.

My real father died soon after I was born so I never knew him. The foster parents had been dead only a few months when a stranger called who identified himself as Mother's brother and offered to take me to see my sister. I didn't go.

Now this same uncle has brought my long-lost mother to me, hoping I will look after her. She is sick and penniless, but try as I will, I find no love in my heart for her. Why should I, when she walked out when I needed her most? My husband and three children have my love. Am I wrong?—F. M. P.

Dear F. M. P.: Duty is one thing; love another. There is no reason why you should be expected to love a mother who deserted you, but since she did give you life, it is your duty to see she doesn't starve. Don't shoulder the burden alone. Talk this problem over with your family and before you give financial aid, make sure she is your mother. Somehow her brother doesn't ring true to me. Have your husband check.

Dear Helen: This is my first year of marriage and I would be very happy if my husband didn't open my mail. When I complained, his mother said, "We have always opened each other's mail in our house."

My mother brought us up to respect one another's privacy. I have no secrets from my husband but I don't want him opening my letters. I like the thrill of guessing who they are from. Then there is the added joy of being first to read them. He would die if I opened his mail. Should I, just to get even? I am 18; he is 19.—Learning-to-be-a-Wife.

Dear Learning: To open your husband's mail is to commit the very crime for which you condemn him. It would put you in the infant class too. Accept the fact that he is acting like an adolescent, then set about helping him to grow up. A wife has to be a combination sweetheart, friend and mother. If his own mother didn't train him, you will have to. Make it clear that he has got to respect your rights and mean it when you say it.

Dear Helen: An authority on teen-age matters approved, in a recent article, college girls visiting boys' apartments. Am I old-fashioned, or is the tabu against a young girl going to a boy's apartment lifted? I would appreciate hearing your views since I have teen-age boys who take anything the authority in question says as gospel truth.—Apprehensive Mother.

Dear Apprehensive: For any teen-age girl to visit a boy's apartment unchaperoned, leaves them both wide open to temptation and criticism, even though they be innocent as angels.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine care of this newspaper. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Teen-Age Code."

Tower Gets Big Hand From GOPs

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The first Texas Republican senator elected since Reconstruction lambasted everything "Democratic" and received a rousing welcome from 1,250 persons at a GOP fund raising dinner here Saturday night. Sen. John Tower also told Arkansas Republicans it is imperative that the party increase its congressional strength this year.

Attacking the Kennedy administration on all sides, Tower accused the Democrats of continuing the same tired practices. He was particularly critical of the President's handling of the cold war. "The greatest deterrent to (Russia) would be an assertion on our part that we will fight it 30.

we have to." Conceding President Kennedy enjoys a large personal popularity, the diminutive Texan, who stands five feet, five inches, said it is a popularity "that appeals to the movie magazine mentality."

The 36-year-old former political science professor was also critical of extreme rightist groups such as the John Birch Society but said the real threat comes from "liberal extremists."

Such people, Tower said, "have no confidence in the ability of the American people to run their own government."

He said the Birchists had "minimized some real threats and magnified others not so real."

Tower, who was introduced by Winthrop Rockefeller, GOP national committeeman from Arkansas, said the party should pick up as many as 12 House seats in the South.

She Likes Frankie

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"That's tommyrot," said dancer Juliet Prowse of a rumored split between her and her fiancé, singer Frank Sinatra.

Sinatra wasn't at the airport when Miss Prowse arrived Saturday night from her home in Johannesburg, South Africa. Her manager, Ed Goldstone, told newsmen: "Frank wasn't there because they had arranged to meet later."

That represents about a third of TV prime evening time schedules-about par for the annual course. Cancellations will affect particularly police-action and filmed comedy shows, among them the cartoons which didn't fulfill the promise of "The Flintstones" which kicked off the trend two seasons ago.

Among the older programs expected to go, making room for new, are "Lawman," "Adventures in Paradise," "Surfside 6," "Bachelor Father," "Hennessey," "Twilight Zone," "National Velvet," "Thriller," "The Detectives" and "The Tall Man."

All three networks have a pretty good idea now about what their next season's schedules will look like, although there may be some shifting around. At this early date, it looks as if there are only about seven hours left open to fill-and there are at least 200 show ideas and pilot programs competing for those hours.

So, if you think one of your favorite programs is on the skids, now is the time to take pen in hand and tell the network and the sponsor how you feel. This is a time of decision.

Jack Paar plans one final working trip before he leaves his late-evening show for good-to London for three shows which will be seen in mid-March. NBC has lined up Art Linkletter and Joey Bishop to play host on the show-the former for two weeks and the latter for one-in April, first of a string of substitutes to keep the show alive and sponsors happy until Johnny Carson takes over in the fall.

NBC is forced to re-shuffle its schedule of "Hazel" shows and drop in a re-run because Shirley Booth was knocked out of action recently with an abscessed tooth, and Don DeFore, who plays her boss, was bedded with an attack of flu-his second this season.

"I think all this stuff is ridiculous, absolutely uncalculated," she said. "Nobody will tell me where my big brother is. If I knew, I'd go see him, even if I had to walk."

"I know there is a reason behind all this," she added later. "I just wish they'd tell us what it is."

As senators began moving in to try to pluck aside some of the curtain of secrecy around Powers' adventures behind the Iron Curtain and his release, Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., proposed that the pilot be brought before a public session of the Armed Services Committee to tell his story.

"In fairness to Mr. Powers, the American people need to hear his story from Mr. Powers himself," Thurmond said.

"If there is no blame, this ought to be brought out."

Aides of Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, said Russell would have no comment now on Thurmond's suggestion.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee seemed to be generally taking over the Powers case. Its acting chairman, Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., told a reporter he thinks it will not be necessary to interrogate Powers personally, "but this is not to be taken as absolutely final."

Sparkman's action actually reopens hearings that began after Powers' high-flying plane crashed deep in the Soviet Union in May 1960 and the subsequent collapse of the summit conference in Paris.

The earlier inquiry left unanswered whether Powers' plane was shot down by a Soviet rocket, as Soviet Premier Khrushchev claimed at the time, or crashed because of mechanical failure.

Members still want to know how the Russians recovered the plane almost intact.

Senators Ask Full Story From Powers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators have told the State Department they want the full story of U2 spy pilot Francis Gary Powers—from his ill-starred flight over the Soviet Union to his walk to freedom.

Spokesmen for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee say they expect they'll get the information after Central Intelligence Agency men question the 32-year-old flier.

If they don't, the senators indicated they may have to question Powers themselves.

So far Powers has been kept under wraps since he was exchanged Saturday for Soviet spy Rudolf Abel.

The only official word on the pilot's whereabouts Monday was a State Department statement that he is seeing his family and will be questioned.

Kentucky Licked 49-44 by Mississippi

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Could it be that Mississippi State is making permanent inroads on Adolph Rupp's once private domain—the Southeastern Basketball Conference?

The Bulldogs certainly put a crimp in the comeback of Rupp's Kentucky squad Monday night, stopping the Wildcats 49-44—and on their own floor.

Utilizing a coolly deliberate attack and a tenacious defense, eighth-ranked Mississippi State (19-1) kept its poise and its lead through several threats, ended second-ranked Kentucky's winning streak at 16 games, and tied the Wildcats for the conference lead at 8-1.

The Bulldogs took only the good shots and took the steam out of Kentucky's first break with their slow-down style and rugged defense. State's gangly W. D. Stroud had 17 points while sophomore Doug Hutton was chief playmaker for the Bulldogs, who cashed in on 69 per cent of their floor shots.

Kentucky Star Larry Pursifull, guarded well by Jack Berkshire and hampered by an ailing shoulder, was held to five points. Wildcat sophomore sensation Cotton Nash had 23.

Rupp, whose Kentucky squads have won 19 Southeastern titles since the conference started 33 years ago, appeared to have another championship team this season, even though the Wildcats were supposed to be rebuilding. Kentucky last won the SEC crown in 1957-58, with Mississippi State taking two of the three since and Auburn the other.

Ohio State's top-ranked Buckeyes and top-ranked star Jerry Lucas had an off-night but still set a Big Ten winning streak record of 24 game with a score of 72-57 at Michigan. Bottling up Lucas with a three-man collapsing zone, the Wolverines made a game of it from intermission until the Bucks pulled away in the closing four minutes.

Also in the Big Ten: Wisconsin kept up its title hopes, beating Indiana 105-94 despite a 44-point performance by the Hoosiers' Jimmy Rayl. Dave Downey scored 24 and Bill Burwell added 22 as Illinois trimmed Northwestern 88-70. And Terry Dischinger's 38 points led Purdue over Iowa 82-75.

Bradley (17-3) was just shy of perfect from the foul line in an 83-77 Missouri Valley Conference decision over Drake. The fifth-ranked Braves hit on 25 of 26 free throws in running their league record to 9-1—one full game over second-place Cincinnati. All-American Chel Walker paced the winners with 23 points.

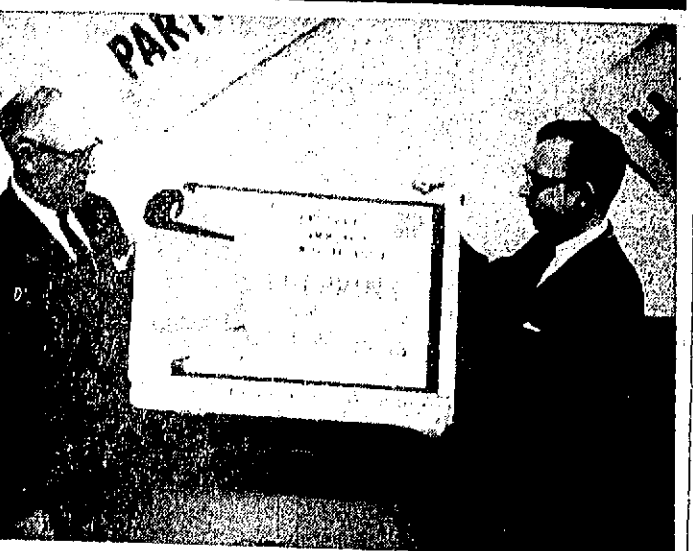

Third-ranked Cincinnati (20-2) outclassed George Washington 83-43 in a nonconference game. Burly Len Chappell established a Wake Forest record with 50 points as the Demon moved into a first-place tie in the Atlantic Coast Conference by blasting Virginia 116-67. Wake Forest and Duke, who meet Thursday, share the ACC lead with 8-2 records.

Colorado improved its Big Eight record to 8-0, downing Oklahoma 64-56 in a rugged game at Boulder. Arizona State (18-3), Border champion and NCAA tournament bound, closed out its conference schedule with an 8-0 mark by trouncing Hardin-Simmons 95-67. St. Bonaventure, getting 30 points from soph Miles Aiken, trounced DePaul at Chicago 88-63. And Jackson (Miss.) State posted a 62-40 home court victory over the nation's top-ranked small college team, Prairie View of Texas.

Tech Slated to Tangle With Hendrix

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas Tech takes on Hendrix tonight in Russellville without the services of its star guard, Billy Boley, who underwent an appendectomy Monday.

Boley will be out of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference wars for at least two weeks, his doctor said. That seriously hampers Tech's hopes in the title race. Tech is 10-3 to 10-2 for State Teachers, 9-2 for Ouachita and 7-2 for Henderson. Ouachita meets Teachers in Conway tonight in a vital conference game.

Boley has been averaging 14.2 points per game, and is second only to star Ken Saylor (31.2) in Tech scoring.

In other AIC games tonight, Ozarks is at A&M, Arkansas College is at Harding and Southern State is at Henderson.

AAU, NCAA at Odds Over Olympics

CHICAGO (AP) — Failing to reach an agreement in their proposed "peace parley," both the AAU and NCAA took opposite stands Monday following a two-day meeting called by the U.S. Olympic Committee.

"We'd be committing suicide if we went along with their demands," said Lou Fisher, president of the Amateur Athletic Union.

"Our proposal of an athletic federation will be the best proposal to advance amateur sports in America," said Walter Byers, executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Falling in between these two demands was K.L. (Tug) Wilson, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee.

Wilson called together the two bodies in hopes of reaching an agreement.

The AAU says it is willing to give the NCAA equitable representation on its international committees. The NCAA wants to work through various federations to set up the structure for international competition.

Since neither side is willing to give any further, the matter has reached a stalemate.

But Wilson, always hopeful has both groups committed to having another get-together within a month.

Operation for Prince

Glad to Settle for Only $212

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Mrs.

Douglas Bradley, Craighead county revenue director, paid the state $212 today from her own funds with the remark, "It sure is a lot better than $1,846.22."

On January 27 a courthouse janitor mistakenly picked up a cardboard box containing checks totaling $1,846.22 and burned them.

They were receipts for the day's sale of auto tags and drivers' licenses.

Mrs. Bradley issued a plea for all persons who had written checks that day to duplicate them.

She received $1,634.22.

The Buckeyes defeated Michigan 72-67 Monday night and have five more regular season games left—all Big Ten contests. Their only other game this week is at Michigan State on Saturday.

Kentucky (No. 2), Cincinnati (No. 3) and Kansas State (No. 4) only in the first week of the (No. 3) and Kansas State (No. 4) retained their rankings of a week ago. All were victorious last week.

Kentucky, however, lost to eighth-ranked Mississippi State 49-44 Monday night, snapping its 16-game winning streak. Cincinnati downed George Washington 83-43 Monday night.

Americans Fall in Big Slalom Race

CHAMONIX, France (AP) —

Charles Bozon of France, twisting and racing through a driving snowstorm, won the special slalom championship of the World Ski Games today.

Buddy Werner and Chuck Ferris, the United States' chief hopes, fell in the second heat after placing third and fourth, respectively, in the first heat.

Guy Perillat of France was second and Gerhard Nennung of Austria third in the two-heat competition, held under near-blizzard conditions on the Le Mont course.

Porks Travel to Houston to Meet the Owls

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Arkansas

and Rice meet here tonight, knowing that the loser will drop out of contention for a first-division berth in the final Southwest Conference basketball standings.

Both hold 4-4 conference records and are all but mathematically eliminated from the championship race.

Arkansas blasted Rice 101-84 in a previous meeting in Fayetteville, but Rice is always tough at home. The Owls are 9-8 for the season to 13-5 for the Razorbacks.

In that first game between the two, Tommy Boyer and Jerry Carlton of Arkansas teamed up for a 50 point total. With them on the starting lineup tonight will be Larry Wofford, Jim Wilson and Jerry Rogers.

Rice starters will be forwards Olle Shipley and Larry Phillips, center Kendall Rhine and guards Jim Fox and Herb Steinkamp.

Pine Bluff Gets Police Dogs

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The first two of four police dogs to be used by the Pine Bluff city police department will be placed on duty Wednesday.

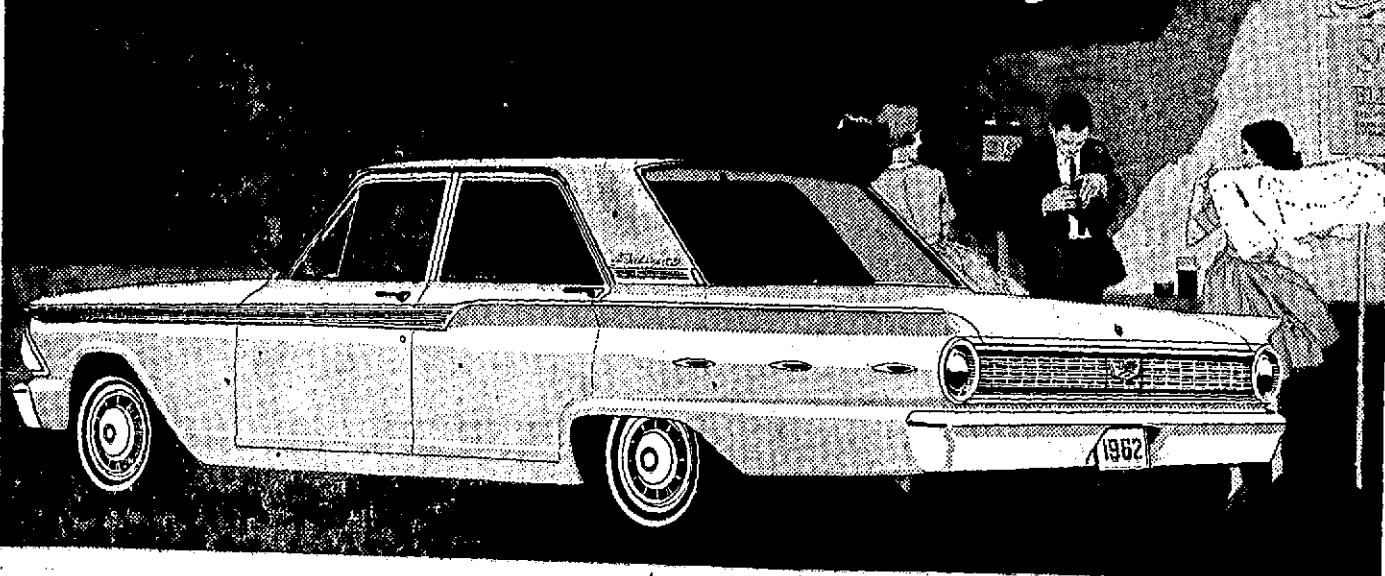

Police Chief Norman Young said today the four specially trained dogs will be used to patrol business and residential areas in the city. Young said he expects them to be effective in reducing prowling, window peeping and house burglaries.

The handlers of the first two dogs to go on duty — Patrolman Jerry D. Nixon and Charles Savage — returned from Brighton, Mo. Sunday with the animals. The dogs were trained at Brighton for 16 weeks. Their handlers received two weeks training there.

The second team of handlers — Patrolmen Howard Hips and Bobby Norman — are at Brighton now. Young said Sgt. Charles Patterson has been named supervisor of the canine program.

The "old city" section of Jerusalem belongs to Jordan. It is a third of a square mile in area.
